Superintendent of Barre town schools, J. G. Seager, presented the guest of honor a beautiful gold watch as an evidence of the high esteem of his acquaintances, whereupon Mr. Watson made a very fitting response for the thoughtfulness of his friends in preparing such a greeting and for what henceforth will be a cherished possession.

Private Ellis was twice gassed once at Chateau Thierry and the other time at St. Mihiel; and, in addition to that, he got a machine gun bullet through his canteen but was himself unscathed.

He was engaged in most of the battles which the 101st was sent into with the exception of the last one at Verdun when he was in the hospital. Prior to service in the recent war, Private Ellis was in the Mexican trouble in 1916, being a member of the Massachusetts troops. The two brothers left Barre about 10 years ago for Medford, Mass., where they reside.

Miss Madeline Rooney of Laurel street was pleasantly reminded of her 12th birthday Friday evening, when 30 young people gathered at her home, the affair being in the nature of a surprise for the birthday girl.

Music and games were interrupted when Alexander Ingram, in gaining the attention of the company, presented Miss Madeline a gold ring as a token of esteem from her friends. The recipient responded in feeling phrases. Afterward refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by Misses Catherine McKerron and Violet Milne.

MRS. ADELAIDE R. BOND.

Former Barre Woman Was Buried at Rumney, N. H.

Funeral services for Mrs. Adelaide R. Bond were held in her apartments in the house of Mrs. E. W. Clough in Rumney, N. H., on May 1 at 2 o'clock p. m. Rev. William E. Baker of the Baptist church of that place officiating. He spoke feelingly and with great appreciation of her Christian character, active assistance and benevolence in the church and helpfulness in the place. There were many beautiful flowers, testifying to the loving regard of many friends. Interment was in Highland cemetery in Rumney, beside her parents.

Persons from a distance to attend the funeral were Harry Norris, cousin, and his wife from Hyde Park, Mass.; Mrs. Orrin Smith of Marshfield and Mrs. Wheeler Batchelder of Plainfield, N. H.; Mr. Bond, Dr. E. H. Bailey of Graniteville, with his wife and two daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Dinmore of Barre Town.

Mrs. Bond was born in Rumney in 1843, living there 16 years, after which her parents being dead, she went to Massachusetts, passing nearly all the time there in various employments, chiefly as a nurse, until she was married to the late C. T. Bond in 1885. After his death in 1905, she moved to Rumney, where she has since resided. In Barre she was a charter member of the Barre First Baptist church and has many friends here. She leaves no nearer relatives than cousins.

Mrs. Bond had been in failing health for two years, but her death was not expected until she sustained a shock April 23, from which she did not rally, and died on the 26th. Dr. E. H. Bailey of Graniteville was summoned, but she was beyond medical aid. She was most faithfully cared for by Mrs. Clough and her daughter, Miss Alice French, and the nurse, Miss Hutchinson, of this city.

Thus one of the world's best women has passed on to the higher life, leaving loving memories and much grief in many hearts.

"We do not feel and we cannot say that she is dead; she is just away."

He Was One of Those Slain by Communists in Munich.

Paris, Saturday, May 3.—Only three of the hostages executed at Munich by the communists before they were overpowered could be recognized. One of them was Prince Albert of Thurn and Taxis.

Among the bodies which were unrecognizable were three that had been decapitated. They are believed to be those of the Countess Westphal, Councillor Dallarmi, who has been known as one of Munich's benefactors, and Professor Franz Von Stuck.
